

Amy Nerou

| Pupil | Call 2023

EXPERTISE

Amy commenced a family law pupillage at Trinity Chambers in January 2024, under the supervision of Kate Fenwick.

Prior to pupillage, Amy was employed as a court clerk at Newcastle Civil and Family Court. Through this, Amy has been exposed to the full range of family cases, including complex public law proceedings. Amy has a keen interest in all areas of family law. Whilst completing her Master of Jurisprudence, which explored the impact of Covid-19 on the criminal court system in England, Amy was also a criminal law teaching assistant at Durham University.
