Call 2024

EXPERTISE

Oluwapelumi (Amanda) represents clients in cases ranging from those with modest matrimonial assets to high-value and complex financial disputes. With over 15 years' experience as a solicitor before transferring to the Bar, she brings a different approach to each case with an understanding of client needs and case management.

Her approach is strategic, combining robust advocacy with an ability to achieve constructive settlements where possible. She is adept at managing sensitive cases ensuring her clients receive clear, realistic advice throughout proceedings.

She is known for her measured advocacy and pragmatic advice, delivering clear, solution-focused representation in both negotiation and contested hearings.
